Read:- 1.G.O.(P) No. 85/2011/Fin dated 26/02/2011

2.G.O.(P) No.7/2016/Fin dated 20/01/2016

3.G.O.(MS)No.81/2017(43)/Fin dated 15/02/2017

4.Cir.No.32/2012/(87)/Fin dated 04/06/2012

ORDER

As per the G.O. read as 1st above, orders were issued revising pay and allowances of State Government Employees and Teachers with effect from 01/07/2009 wherein the previous ratio 2:2:1:1 among LD Typist, U.D Typist, Typist Senior Grade and Typist Selection Grade under Common Category was revised to 1:1:1 consequent on merging the posts of Senior and Selection Grades into Selection Grade on Rs.14620-25280. As per Government Order read as 2nd above, orders have been issued revising pay and allowances of State Government Employees and Teachers with effect from 01/07/2014 accepting the recommendations of 10th Pay Revision Commission wherein the posts of Typist Senior Grade has been re-introduced revising the existing ratio 1:1:1 among L.D.Typist, U.D.Typist and Selection Grade Typist to 1:1:1:1 among L.D.Typist, U.D.Typist, Senior Grade Typist and Selection Grade Typist. Accordingly there arose a situation of having two sets of Selection Grade Typists in service, ie, one set promoted directly from U.D.Typist and the other set promoted from the post of Senior Grade Typist. It creates an anomalous situation of junior enjoying higher pay by virtue of availing three promotions with fixation of pay compared to their seniors who could enjoy only two fixations in the category of Typist till their promotion to the post of Selection Grade.

2. In order to get rid of the Junior- Senior anomaly pointed out above, Government have issued orders sanctioning the benefit of two additional increments to Typists promoted directly from U.D. Typist to Selection Grade Typist vide G.O. read as 3rd above. But it is further noticed that there were some senior employees who were in the post of Senior Grade Typist prior to their date of option to the 2009 Pay Revision and were placed in the revised scale of pay of Selection Grade Typist following merger of Senior Grade into Selection Grade. In this process they were denied the benefit of fixation of pay on promotion to Selection Grade. Hence these employees have requested for the benefit of increment sanctioned by the G.O read as 3rd paper above.

3. Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to order that the employees who were in the post of Senior grade Typist in the scale of pay of Rs.7990-12930 prior to 2009 Pay Revision and were placed in the scale of pay of Rs.14620-25280 attached to the post of Selection Grade Typist in 2009 Pay Revision as per the G.O read as 1st paper above will be granted the benefit of two additional increments sanctioned by the G.O read as 3rd paper above subject to the condition that in the case of employees who were granted one advance increment under the Circular read above will be granted only one increment under these orders.

4. All other terms and conditions except that under para2(1) in the G.O. read as 3rd paper above will apply to the grant of additional increments under these orders.
