ORDER

Government have introduced ‘Rubber Production Incentive Scheme (RPIS)’ to provide financial support to rubber farmers in the State in association with Rubber Board as per G.O read as 1st paper above. As envisaged in the scheme, the Rubber Board has to scrutinise and confirm the registration details and sales bills of rubber farmers endorsed by the Rubber Producers Societies (RPS) for the disbursal of subsidy to rubber farmers.

2. The Secretary, Rubber Board has reported that the officers and staff of Rubber Board are relentlessly working and putting efforts for the verification and confirmation of registrations and sales bills of rubber farmers under the scheme in addition to their regular duties and they have to incur additional expenditure often to facilitate the implementation of the Rubber Production Incentive Scheme as per letter read as 3rd paper above. The Secretary, Rubber Board has also requested to provide 1% of the budgetary allocation as implementation/operational charges considering their additional financial commitment and additional work load involved in facilitating the implementation of the Scheme.

3. In the circumstances, Government after examining the matter in detail, are pleased to sanction operational charges in the following rates to the Rubber Board towards remuneration for confirmation of registration details and sales bills of rubber farmers under Rubber Production Incentive Scheme.

	Items	Rate
a.	Confirmation of registration	Rs.10 /each registration.
b.	Confirmation of sales bills	Rs.5 /each sales bill.

4. The operational charges will be worked out on the basis of the claims generated through the RPIS software and above rates and will be disbursed directly to the Bank Account of Rubber Board once in every quarter.
