ORDER

As per the Government Order read above, online bill system has been introduced for bills presented by all grant-in-aid institutions. As per the new system, the grantee institutions shall submit their claims to the countersigning authorities concerned and the Drawing and Disbursing Officers (DDOs) under them shall process the claim and submit the bill online to the treasury. Accordingly, Secretaries of Departments concerned were requested to nominate one officer in their department as DDO for processing the claims of all grant in aid institutions under the department.

2. Vide the letter (3) referred above, Kerala State Commission for Economically Backward Classes among Forward Communities (KSCEBCFC) have now furnished the proposal for declaring the DDO for processing the bills of grant-in-aid institutions under the commission.

3. Government have examined the position in detail and are pleased to declare the Under Secretary, General Administration (Accounts K) Department as the Drawing and Disbursing Officer for processing the grant-in-aid bills of the commission mentioned in pre-para.
