ORDER

As per the Government Order read 1st paper above, Government issued orders dispensing with the Self Drawing Officer (SDO) System and introduced One Office One DDO System in the State. This envisages drawal and disbursement of salary and other entitlements of all employees, including gazetted officers by the Drawing and Disbursing Officers (DDO) of the establishment in which the officers are attached to. But as per the Government Order read 2nd paper above, drawal of salary and other entitlements of Hon'ble Judges of the High Court was exempted from the purview of Government Order read 1st paper above.

2) Now, the Registrar General of High Court vide paper read as 3rd cited, intimated that Hon'ble Acting Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court desires to switch over to the One Office One DDO system to draw their salary and other entitlements.

3) In view of the foregoing, Government are pleased to include the drawal of salary and other entitlements of Hon'ble Judges of the High Court also under the purview of the Government Order read 1st paper above with effect from 01.04.2018.

4) In the circumstances, the G.O. read 2nd paper above stands modified to this extent.

5) The Director of Treasuries would issue necessary direction in this regard to the treasury officer concerned immediately.
