ORDER

1. As per the Government Order read 1st above, Government have ordered that Non-UGC teachers (excluding 60 opted teachers) who retired prior to introduction of the UGC Scheme from institutions where the said Scheme was implemented with effect from 1-1-1986 were granted pensionary benefits under the above scheme with prospective effect as per the provisions applicable in this regard. It was also ordered that the enhanced monetary benefits will be paid with effect from 1-4-2015 and no arrears shall be paid.

2. But since the request for UGC Scheme pension was primarily made by retired teachers of Arts and Science colleges, vide Government Order read 2nd and 3rd above it was clarified that the Government Order read 1st above is not applicable to teachers retired from Directorate of Medical Education and Directorate of Technical Education respectively.

3. Several representations have since received from the teachers retired from Directorate of Medical Education and Directorate of Technical Education to extend the benefit of Government Order read 1st above to them also.

4. The Tenth Pay Revision Commission vide para 9.37 of the report read 4th above have opined that teachers retired prior to the introduction of Central scales are very limited in number and are vanishing category, the benefit granted to the Non-UGC teachers vide Government Order read 1st above may be extended to those who retired before the introduction of Central scales of pay in Medical colleges and Engineering colleges for calculating minimum assured pension/OROP.

5. Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to order that the benefit of UGC Scheme pension contemplated in Government Order read 1st above shall be extended to the teachers under the Directorate of Medical Education who retired prior to 01-04-1990 and to the teachers under the Directorate of Technical Education who retired prior to 01-01-1986 with monetary benefits from 01-04-2015. They shall be entitled to the payment of arrears with effect from 01-04-2015.
