ORDER

As per Government Order 1st read above, all state government employees, including gazetted officers were permitted to draw their salary and other entitlements through their accounts with public sector banks based on their choice. The detailed procedure to be followed in this regard was issued vide Government Orders 2nd, 3rd and 4th read above. Accordingly, public sector banks alone was included in the SPARK system to receive salary through the bank account.

Now Kerala Gramin Bank has requested Government to include them also in the SPARK system since RBI has approved Regional Rural Banks also to undertake Government business.

Accordingly, Government are pleased to include Kerala Gramin Bank also in the list of banks authorised to credit the salary of state government employees through the SPARK system.
